

Opportunity

Position: Search Consultant

Location: Zurich

Ref: DA215

This career opportunity is not with a Client of DART, but in our own dynamic office right in the centre of Zurich! We are seeking a smart, quick-thinking and presentable personality with several years' professional experience and a passion for client service, success, financial services and fun.

Role

The role of a Search Consultant at DART is varied, demanding and rewarding.

With your drive to succeed and strong communication skills, you will prove a valuable partner to our corporate clients in achieving their growth targets and hiring the best talent available in the market. Within our small, focused team you will contribute towards our mission of setting new standards for service and success in the executive search and recruitment field. At DART our approach is simple, targeted and designed to add value. This is how we foster long-term relationships with our Clients, who in turn have learnt to entrust us as valued partners to their business.

On a daily basis you will research and approach potential new candidates and interview them for their suitability for a given career opportunity. You will meet and communicate with clients, updating them on our progress on search mandates and discussing search / hiring strategy, the suitability of candidates and trends in the market.

Specifically you will take responsibility for being the key person in developing a new business area for us, using our strong platform, client base and position in the market.

Requirements

- 2-4 years professional experience
- Keen interest in Financial Services and a willingness to learn
- Motivated character able to contribute to a small team
- Client focussed and excellent organisational skills
- Outstanding communication skills and success drive
- Fluent English, and German or Italian

This could be your next, exciting career move. Initiate it by sending your current CV to info@dartexec.com or calling us on +41 44 215 1080.
